X/SCHOEBEL, Hans Erich - Fall MONOGRAMM [

] Contact Rpt. 1 Sept. 60

1. I asked SKUTZBACH about Fall MONOGRAMM and how it was proceeding, and SKUTZBACH stated that things were only so-so. The agent, Subject, flew to Berlin for the meeting scheduled for 6 August and went to the Hotel Adria where he was to wait for the case officer. After waiting for about 30 minutes and when no one showed up, he phoned the Czech Embassy and asked to speak to REZEK. From the manner in which REZEK answered the phone it appeared that he was waiting for the call, since Subject had no trouble making him understand who he was. REZEK told Subject to take a taxi and come to the Embassy, but Subject claimed he had no DME. REZEK then advised Subject to come to the Embassy and have the taxi wait out in front and that he, REZEK, would take care of paying for the cab. Subject followed these instructions and delivered the Spielmaterial which had been prepared by UPHILL, to REZEK. REZEK accepted the material without comment and said that unfortunately RICHMANN was temporarily out of town and had been unable to make the scheduled meeting. (It was clear from the discussion with SKUTZBACH that he was not completely up on the case since he allegedly did not know about new KRI's or whether or not Subject had received any pay.) Subject asked REZEK to drive him to the West Berlin Bahnhof but REZEK refused and gave him some DME to take a taxi. SKUTZBACH is convinced that the CIS seems to be withdrawing from the case. Comment: This is the first indication that we have had that the agent has been passing the CIS written Spielmaterial.
